MARCH 2022 NEWSLETTER

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

One way to define spiritual life is getting so tired and fed up with yourself you go on to something better, which is following Jesus. —Eugene H. Peterson

Footprints

I'm sure you are familiar with the popular poem about walking along the beach with Jesus, and seeing two sets of footprints in the sand, but only one set during the really difficult challenges of life. And when questioned, Jesus replies: My child, it was then that I carried you. It's a comforting image, especially when one is having a lousy day (or two).

But if you think about it, if we are truly seeking to be disciples of the Christ, there should always be only one set of footprints.

And the tracks we see—and follow-- should be those of Jesus.

Imagine a fresh snowfall in the woods. It's pretty deep, and you haven't got your snow boots. Someone has gone ahead of you, a brave soul who knows the way, and left clear tracks for you to follow if you choose. It's a good path, so you step gingerly into the first boot print, then the next, and the next, feeling no need to blaze a fresh trail when this one is going right where we need to go.

At some point, we see other ways, other tracks we could follow. They tempt us, but the tracks aren't as clear. Maybe the footsteps are too big. Maybe the new path is deep or muddy in spots, or fraught with brambles, leaving us questioning why we ever felt the need to go that way in the first place. So back we go, to the original way we were shown and taught. Back to the clear path Jesus himself describes as the Way (John 14:6).

One set of tracks, belonging to Jesus. How will you follow in Christ's footsteps this Lenten season?

Peace, Hope and Quiet,
Pastor Heidi
