SEPTEMBER 2022 NEWSLETTER

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"The highest form of worship is the worship of unselfish Christian service. The greatest form of praise is the sound of consecrated feet seeking out the lost and helpless." Billy Graham

True worship.

Church has changed over the years. What used to be a time to come and spend time in God's presence, then spend time in community with friends and family has, in many places, become a performance to watch. We judge the "show" based on whether I have been entertained, whether God personally spoke to me.

The world's way of looking at a worship service is to see the worship leaders and musicians as the stars of the show; those in the pews are the audience. Whether the show is "any good" depends on how the "audience" responds. How many noses? How many nickels? Did they rise to their feet and applaud wildly? Is that what makes a good service?

What if instead, we realize that we are all part of the production, and the worship leaders are agents of God's Holy Spirit? What if God is the Star of the show—and the Audience?

What if a "good show" is measured not by the number of seats filled, but by the number of hearts moved?

What if every nickel dropped in the plate were truly given joyfully—and not grudgingly?

What if the only sound each member of the "show" desires is the whisper, deep within: You are my beloved Child. In you I am well pleased.

The world tries to convince us: it's all about me. Me first; everyone else, get in line. Truth is, within our lives, if we try to put God first, everything else falls in line with that desire. We discover we have more than enough to share with those who have less—and it feels good.

And we remind ourselves that the worship God desires is not unbridled applause or catchy tunes, but a contrite heart, open hands, and a voice for the voiceless (Isaiah 58:3-14).

I am grateful for your presence here, and for your unique gifts and voice.

Peace and Love,
Pastor Heidi
